

Benarx Fire Drain Plug is an effective solution for draining potential water from insulation while maintaining the passive fire protection integrity of the system.

Benarx Fire Drain Plug is a threaded stainless steel drain pipe containing a fire expanding seal inside. The drain plug can be mounted on various types of insulations systems, by the use of a stainless steel plate with steel bands or by fastening it with a threaded washer and nut through the drain side of the pipe or equipment insulation product.

Passive Fire Protection

CUI Mitigation